Old Business

The TM briefed the Board that he had spoken to the brother (Dale Geib (yes; different spelling)) of John Gieb who lived in Canada. John Gieb was on the Tax Acquired sale bid list to be placed in the Penobscot Times. TM stated that Dale was sending a check to clear up taxes and interest to date. Jay moved to accept the payment but, hold the transfer of a Quit Claim deed until the Check was received and cleared the bank. Adam seconded; 4-0 vote.

The Board reaffirmed the TM must put ad in paper soonest for May 3 bid opening. Adam motioned that the properties minus the Gieb property be listed and change the ad to read "payment must be received within 30 days" instead of the current 10 days and the, Bid date to be may 3, 2017. Donna seconded; 4-0 vote.

Adam motioned to accept Mike Georgia's resignation from the board; Donna seconded; 4-0 vote

Property tax for Black Bear Hydro was tabled at the suggestion of TM due to the nights time constraints.

New Business

The board discussed to dedicate the upcoming Town Report to Mike Georgia and Mary Rustin for their years of service to the Town.

The Board discussed to have the cover of the Town Report be a collage of photos of Rachel and the Recreation department.

The Board Discussed having Matt be the moderator for the Town Meeting again this year. Adam made contact with Matt via text and Matt agreed.

The Board and members of the Budget Committee Discussed, reviewed and revised parts of the Budget. During budget discussions the Board instructed the TM to contact The School Budget Committee to set up a joint budget meeting on April 25 or 27 at 6:30.

Public Works- Keith Fowler

Keith mentioned that the Flow and Velocity meter with Alarm is set up in the Sewer System and CES meter has been returned.
